PRELIMINARY FILE REVIEW

Prior to making a decision to retain our services, a client can request that we perform a preliminary review of file materials and call to discuss the case file. File materials should be assembled and sent along with a $1000-$2000 check for preliminary file review (depending on amount of file materials, 1/2 day to full day). (File materials include police report, photos, measurements, any analyses (computer and other), fact witness depositions, etc.).

RETAINER:

Work will commence upon receipt of a required $2,500.00 retainer (unless other arrangements have been made) and written authorization to proceed from client. Retention of McHenry Consultants, Inc. includes acceptance of the following terms and conditions:

General Obligations of the Accident Reconstructionist, Software Consultant
